

AFT RILED AT ALLEGED TRAPeves He Was "Baited" at Pittsburg Dinner.

LITTLETON MAKES DENIAL

Yorker Maintains He Gave President Copy of His Address in Advance and That Taft Therefore Knew What Was Coming—Chief Executive Had Only Nineteen Minutes Left Before Train Time in Which to Reply.

Pittsburg, Nov. 2.—President Taft angry. He believes he was "baited" to make Pittsburg a holiday and that Representative Martin W. Littleton maliciously and intentionally "baited" him at the chamber of commerce banquet, by unexpected argument of the Sherman anti-trust law, is specific charge.

The story is that the president was informed early in the evening that a very pleasant evening at the banquet. There was that he had been told Mr. Littleton's speech would contain a savage attack on the attitude of the president and other members of administration.

The story runs that the president refused to attend the banquet and that several Pittsburgers had to give him assurance that had received false information that that would take place at the big dinner at Memorial hall. It was not until these guarantees were received, said, that the president consented to the banquet.

Becomes Angry in Public.
The executive displeasure was vented on a wire from Morgantown, W. Va., where he went from here, in which it stated the president in the first place in his career "got mad" in public. The manner in which the speeching was switched was not to Mr. Littleton's liking and the report from Morgantown contains a rap for the chamber of commerce responsible for it, as well as for Mr. Littleton.

Before an audience that included hundreds of Pittsburg millionaires and vast 150 minor officials of the steel subsidiaries the president was seated to sit while he heard Representative Martin W. Littleton (Democrat) denounce the Sherman anti-trust law and demand its repeal. The Pittsburgers cheered Littleton to the echo as he rattled the statute, declaring that as incapable of enforcement.

It had been a long evening of tireless speech up to that time and when Littleton concluded with a burst of oratory amid a storm of cheers the president had but nineteen minutes to time his train was scheduled to leave Pittsburg and, for the first time he became president, Taft "got right out in public."

Puts Vigor Into His Reply.

Realizing that he was being baited to make a Pittsburg holiday he right after Littleton's argument, he felt a sound of applause greeted as he arose, Pittsburg business feeling convinced that he had silenced. But with more vigor he had ever put into public utterance the president defended the laws. His face suffused and his huge swinging from side to side he flung his fists at the Pittsburgers and "them they must obey the law."

Why, the whole thing is foolish," retorted Littleton with a rising intonation. "I had not such in mind. If things of that sort were done it was my fault. I had been shifted back forth on the program until I did know where I stood. But I made complaint. It was up to me and I w it."

The president's excited. I don't why he should take upon himself defense of the Sherman anti-trust law. He's not responsible. I'd hate have the job of explaining its shortcomings for the past twenty-one years. Mr. Taft knew what I was going say, or at least he should have, because I gave him a copy of my speech in the afternoon and he had plenty of time to read it, if he wanted. In fact, I understand he did read so the charge that he was taken wares won't stand."

Hunted by Sister.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Peter Pent, returning from hunting, stood a shot up against a table in his home in village of Lemont, near here, and sister, Anna, seventeen years old, killed it up and thoughtlessly pulled trigger. The side of the boy's head was blown off and he died several hours later.

Polo Player Killed.

Santa Barbara, Cal., Nov. 2.—John Ross, a polo player of wide prominence, fell with his pony in a game received injuries that resulted in death.

Chehalis, Wash.

EIGHT PROBABLY WILL DIE

Only Two Girls Escape From Burning Building, Although a Dozen Men Were Unhurt—Owing to the Rapid Spread of the Flames Victims Could Not Get From Behind Counter at Which They Were Working.

Chehalis, Wash., Nov. 2.—Fire which destroyed the powder factory of the Imperial Powder company here caused seven young women employed in the factory to lose their lives and an eighth probably will die. Only two girls escaped, although a dozen men were unhurt.

The dead are Vera Mulford, Tillie Raschback, Sadie Westfall, Eva Gilmore, Bertha Bagle, Ethel Sharp and Mrs. Ethel Henry.

Bertha Crown was so severely burned that she may die.

The cause of the fire is a mystery. One report is that a pot of paraffin in the mixing room was allowed to burn over by a careless workman and that part of it ran into some powder. A flash followed and soon the whole structure was burning.

The girls were huddled down together and owing to the rapid spread of the flames could not escape from behind the counter at which they were working.

Four of the company's buildings were destroyed, together with the equipment and many tons of manufactured powder, entailing a financial loss of $20,000 or more.

POLICEMAN ENDS HIS LIFE

Billings, Mont., Officer Commits Suicide as He Quits Force.

Billings, Mont., Nov. 2.—Standing before his locker in the balcony of the council chamber of the city hall, preparatory to taking off for the last time his uniform and donning the clothing of a private citizen, Policeman John L. Dooley sent a bullet from his revolver through his brain. Officers who heard the report hurried up stairs and found Dooley lying face downward. Death had been instantaneous. The officer had given no intimation that he contemplated taking his own life and when he walked into the station he greeted the other policemen pleasantly and said:

"Well, I guess I will go up and get into citizens' clothes as my resignation is now effective."

SPELL OF WINTER WEATHER

Snow Flurries and Cold Wave in Several States.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—A decided drop in the temperature, accompanied by more or less snow, ushered in real winter weather in many of the Northern and Lake states. Michigan, where a blizzard swept over the Upper Peninsula and the western portion of the Lower, suffered the most. The farmers were hit the hardest and most of the trains were delayed.

From Minnesota, North Dakota, Illinois and Ohio points come reports of light snow flurries, with a low temperature and high winds following. Calumet, Mich., had its first sleighing party of the year, while Lake Michigan steamers were held in their harbors by heavy seas.

EXCITED HUNTER KILLS TWO

Another Wounded When Man Fires at a Noise.

Mays Landing, N. J., Nov. 2.—Eager to have shot at a deer which he supposed was coming down an unused road in the early dawn Charles Norcross of Iona, N. J., fired into a party of four other hunters, killing two and seriously wounding a third.

The dead are: Conrad Steelman, twenty-eight years old, of Pleasantville, N. J., and John Yost, aged thirty-two, Pleasantville.

Norcross is in jail here awaiting the action of the coroner. He is almost prostrated.

Charge Nomination of Willett for Supreme Court Cost Money.

New York, Nov. 2.—An information charging criminal conspiracy against four persons—among them the Democratic leaders of the two Long Island boroughs of New York city and a Democratic candidate for the supreme court bench—was filed by Assistant District Attorney William A. De Ford of New York county.

The conspiracy is charged in connection with the nomination of William Willett as a Democratic candidate for supreme court justice. According to the information the charge is that of promoting or procuring the nomination of Willett, "upon the payment of a sum of money" by the candidate.

STEPHENSON LAST

Senate Committee Ends Hearings in Wisconsin City.

Milwaukee, Nov. 2.—The United States senate committee, which for a month has been investigating charges of bribery in the election of Senator Isaac Stephenson, adjourned its hearing in Milwaukee to meet later in Washington.

Senator W. B. Heyburn, Republican, of Idaho and Senator Atlee Pomerene, Democrat, of Ohio, who have constituted a subcommittee of the senate committee on privileges and elections, announced that 124 witnesses had been examined, thirty-two affidavits received and 6,500 pages of testimony taken and that the inquiry so far as Milwaukee was concerned had been exhausted.

Senator Stephenson, the last witness, repeated his former testimony that, while he expended $107,793 in the primary campaign of 1908 for nomination, he had given little attention as to how the money was spent, but had left the details to others. The senator declared he never knew Robert J. Shields and, while he had done $10,000,000 of $12,000,000 worth of lumber business with Edward Hines in the last fifteen years, he never had had any political dealings with him.

Particularly he denied he had been approached by Mr. Hines in Washington for money with which to purchase votes in the Wisconsin legislature or that he ever signed a check in blank and had given it to Shields. While some of the money was being spent in his behalf he was on a fishing trip, he said.

READY FOR ANY EMERGENCY

Secretary of the Navy's Opinion of Immense Fleet.

New York, Nov. 2.—"The fleet has demonstrated its preparedness for any emergency and has shown the effectiveness of the present organization."

George von L. Meyer, secretary of the navy, made this statement on board the president's yacht Mayflower, after having inspected ninety-nine fighting ships of the Atlantic fleet assembled in the Hudson river for the greatest mobilization in the history of the American navy.

Leaving the Mayflower in an admiral's launch, after having received on board Rear Admiral Osterhaus, the commander-in-chief, and the division commanders, the secretary paid visits to the flagships.

No Progress in McNamara Case.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 2.—With thirteen months to a day elapsed since twenty-one persons lost their lives in an explosion and fire which wrecked the Los Angeles Times hardly the beginning of a jury had been obtained in the trial of James B. McNamara, accused of having caused the death of Charles J. Hagerty, one of the victims. Counsel for the state estimated that two months hence a jury may have been obtained.

MORE REFORM
IN HOUSE RULESSenator Bailey Thinks There Is Room For Improvement.

OBJECTS TO GAG ON DEBATE.

The "Three Jims" to the Front in Indiana—Taft Winning Senators to Arbitration Treaties—Bryan's Unanswered Questions—What One Millionaire Gets Out of Life.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 2.—[Special.]—Senator Bailey, who served ten years in the house, does not think that any very great reform has been made in the house rules, although there has been a general impression that the Reed rules, which Cannon enforced to a degree of unpopularity, have been superseded by rules which give the members of the house absolute control.

"The first speech I made in the house," remarked the Texas senator, "was against the adoption of that portion of the old Reed rules which provided that the committee on rules could report a special order and gag the house. The only change which the present house has made in that rule is to have a larger committee on rules and the speaker no longer to dominate it. The power is there still, and when a strong man determines to exercise it he will do so, just as former chairmen of the rules committee have done. It is wrong in principle and contrary to the spirit of representative free government."

May Be Used This Winter.

It is rather expected that the famous Reed rule, which has been in force in every congress since Reed was first speaker, will have to be invoked during the coming session of congress, as it is not believed that the Democratic caucus will continue to be as harmonious and unanimous as it was during the special session. The Reed rule, the real gag, by which the committee on rules shuts off all debate, requires a majority of the house for its enforcement, but no committee has attempted to put such a rule through without being sure of its majority.

The Old Crowd in Indiana.

Republicans of Indiana are to be marshaled under the old banner. The "three Jims" are in the saddle. Jim Goodrich, Jim Hemenway and Jim Watson for many years successfully shaped the destinies of the Republican party in Indiana in days when it was in control. Then they were ousted, but the party is to be organized under the direction and control of Jim Hemenway and will seek to regain control of the state. Meanwhile former Senator Beveridge has been abroad.

Taft's Senatorial Harvest.

It has been supposed that President Taft was more interested in smoothing down the rough places in his party with his trip through the west, but it appears that he has been gathering in a number of senators for the arbitration treaties pending in the senate. Wherever possible he has secured promises of support for the treaties, which are second only to the Canadian reciprocity among his pet measures.

Versatile Elliott Woods.

There is no more versatile man about the national capital than Elliott Woods, the superintendent. He is an architect, an astronomer, skilled in telegraphy, wireless, X rays, photography and half a dozen other sciences and arts. He is a musician, can play the violin, piano, has written three operas and in fact is the most all around man that I have ever known. He is not a mere "jack of all trades," but he is skilled in the several branches named.

Remain Unanswered.

Mr. Bryan probably knows what President Taft will not tell him who made written and verbal recommendations for the appointment of Chief Justice White and Associate Justice Hughes. Mr. Bryan has been demanding in black letters that the president give him this information.

It reminds me that one of the great metropolitan dailies demanded of Chairman Cortelyou in 1904 in black type that seemed to roar how much each of a dozen specifically named trusts contributed to the Roosevelt campaign fund. Many times since the same demand has been made, but Mr. Cortelyou does not seem to know it. At least he has never told. It is scarcely probable that the president will pay any greater attention to Mr. Bryan's demands.

Board and Clothes.

One of the men who had made a fortune in steel was showing a million dollar residence he had built. He was asked what he intended to do with it. "That's what's bothering me," he replied. "When I was a poor boy I never expected I would want very much money. When I had accumulated a million and saw other men with many millions I wanted to match them, so I went on and made more money. Now I have built this big house, but I don't know what I am going to do with it."

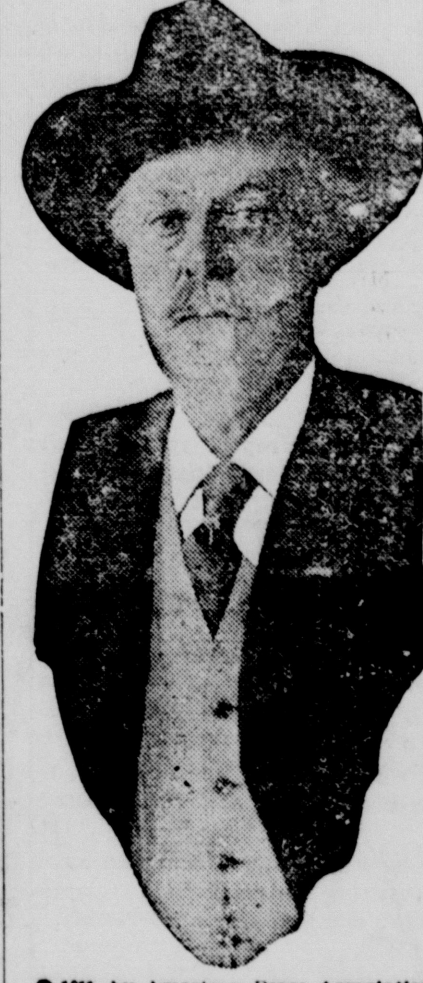

"What do you get out of life, anyway?" he was asked.

"Just board and clothes," he replied. "Nothing more; just about what every other man gets."

BUFFALO BILL'S FAREWELL

Circus Man and Indian Fighter Retires to the West.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 2.—Colonel William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) retired from public life. His show was packed off to winter quarters and his Indians will return to their tepees in what is left of the red man's land, while Buffalo Bill himself intends to spend his remaining years in the West.

His career, began as a pony express rider, led him through more Indian battles than any other living white man and included twenty-eight as a showman.

The sobriquet Buffalo Bill he earned in the early sixties when he contracted to furnish buffalo meat to the laborers on the building of the Kansas Pacific railroad. In less than eighteen months he killed 4,280 bison.

PROBING REBATES
TO STEEL COMBINECommerce Commission Quietly Making Inquiry.

Washington, Nov. 2.—It transpired that the interstate commerce commission has quietly been conducting an extended investigation into discriminations and special privileges which are alleged to be made principally in favor of the United States Steel corporation and some of its subsidiaries by railroads which transport iron ore from ports on the Great Lakes. Officials of a dozen railroads came here for a conference with Commissioner Lane, who has been directing the inquiry.

James McCrea, president of the Pennsylvania; J. H. Reed, president of the Bessemer and Lake Erie; J. H. Clarke, general counsel for the New York, Chicago and St. Louis (Nickel Plate), and Charles F. Daly, vice president of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, headed the delegation.

These roads are under indictment charged with violating the Elkins law, through discriminations in dock charges at Ashtabula and Conneaut, O., by which the government alleges more than $798,000 was rebated by the Bessemer to the Carnegie Steel company between January, 1908, and July, 1909, and by which the Pennsylvania also is alleged to have rebated $133,000 to subsidiaries of the steel corporation.

CRAZED NEGRO SHOTS EIGHT

Three Policemen Fatally Wounded on Ferryboat.

New Orleans, Nov. 2.—An unidentified negro, crazed from drink, ran amuck on a ferryboat in the middle of the Mississippi at Algiers, near here, shot and fatally wounded three policemen who attempted to stop him and seriously injured five citizens.

The black then took refuge behind a huge pile of freight, but was shot to death by a fusillade from the revolvers of half a dozen men who were pursuing him.

PACIFIC FLEET REVIEWED

Assembles Off Port of Los Angeles in Perfect Fighting Trim.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 2.—In perfect fighting trim the Pacific fleet off this port underwent the first naval review in Southern California waters to the satisfaction of Rear Admiral Chauncey Thomas and the pleasure of national lawmakers.

The vessels assumed the formation charted out for them—a solid rectangle with four columns and six rows, while the other two craft in the fleet served as reviewing ship and tender respectively.

Socialists Have Lead in Los Angeles Primary.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 2.—Complete official returns from the primary show the failure of the efforts of the Socialists to capture the majority by a majority vote and thus obviate the necessity of going before the people again on Dec. 5 at the regular election. Mayor George Alexander, "good government" nominee, and Job Harriman, Socialist, will compete in a two-man contest for the office.

Impartial leaders say the question in the coming campaign that is agitating all factions is "What will the women do?" There are now approximately 26,000 women registered in Los Angeles and by Nov. 9, when registration closes for the fair sex, it is believed that 40,000 will register.

MINERS' UNION RECOGNIZED

Seven Months' Strike in Western Canadian Coal Fields Ends.

Winnipeg, Nov. 2.—At a conference at Frank, Alta., between mine operators and mine workers in the coal strike district of Western Canada the United Mine Workers' union of America was recognized when the operators agreed to the check off system. The parties are again in conference arranging the final details, according to O. A. Flummerfelt, president of the International coal company. The seven-month strike cost the men and companies $10,000,000.

Tells W. C. T. U. He Does Not Believe in Prohibition.

Milwaukee, Nov. 2.—Mayor Seidel, the city's Socialist executive, addressed the National W. C. T. U. convention and told it outspokenly that he did not believe in prohibition. His remarks were greeted with cries of "No." There were words of disapproval and he was all but hooted to silence. He said that there were things about the city which he could not approve of and that what he did not approve of might be favored by the prohibitionists. He declared he did not believe the saloon needed to be wiped out, but he said he agreed with the women as to the need for better conditions of children of the nation.

Reported That Entire Population Has Been Slain.

YUAN SHI KAI IS PREMIER

Cessation of Hostilities on the Part of the Government Will Follow His Appointment and Negotiations to End the Revolution Will Be Opened With the Leaders of the Rebels.

Peking, Nov. 2.—The war office has received a report that the imperialist forces have recaptured Hankow and massacred the population.

The appointment of Yuan Shi Kai as premier of China will be followed by a cessation of hostilities on the part of the imperialists and the opening of negotiations with General Li Yuen Heng, leader of the revolutionists at Hankow.

An imperial edict providing for important administrative changes also accepts the resignations of the ministers, but until Yuan Shi Kai returns to Peking Prince Ching will continue to perform the duties of premier and the present cabinet will remain in office.

All the ministers attended a secret session of the national assembly which, it is understood, practically agreed to the demands of the disaffected Lanchow troops. A member of the war board was appointed to confer with the troops and express the assembly's views.

The assembly also discussed the recent loan for which arrangements had been made with a Belgian and French syndicate. The ministers explained that the loan was needed for the purpose of carrying on field operations.

The assembly thought there was a good prospect of the termination of hostilities, in which case the loan would not be necessary. It was finally decided to refer the matter by telegraph to Yuan Shi Kai.

The panic among the people of Peking which ensued after the issuance of the first imperial edict has been largely dispelled and the newspapers are beginning to sum up the results of the seventeen-day rebellion. The Daily News considers that the appointment of Yuan Shi Kai will change the entire political complexion, restore peace, inspire the people with confidence, command the respect of foreign countries and place the empire on a sound basis.

POPULATION OF WISCONSIN

Census Bureau Issues an Interesting Bulletin.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The population of Wisconsin is 2,333,860. Compared with a population of 2,069,042 in 1900 this represents an increase during the last decade of 264,818, or 12.8 per cent, according to a bulletin just issued by the census bureau. During the same period the total population of continental United States increased 21 per cent.

Wisconsin has 124 cities. Milwaukee, the largest, has a population of 373,857, and Superior, the second city, a population of 40,384. Besides Superior there are six cities having from 25,000 to 50,000 inhabitants. There are also ten cities having from 10,000 to 25,000, eighteen from 5,000 to 10,000, thirty-seven from 2,500 to 5,000 and fifty-one less than 2,500 inhabitants. The aggregate population of the 124 cities is 1,083,708, or 46.4 per cent of the total population of the state.

KNOX WILL AID PRESIDENT

Secretary Will Speak in Favor of Arbitration Treaties.

Morgantown, W. Va., Nov. 2.—In anticipation of the coming session of congress President Taft has planned to freshen up his campaign in behalf of the proposed arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France, which the United States senate foreign relations committee unfavorably reported at the special session last summer. From now on the president will devote much time to speaking about the treaties and it is known that he has enlisted Secretary of State Knox in the fight to have the senate ratify them.

Mr. Knox will make a speech about the peace pacts in Cincinnati next week, probably after Mr. Taft himself is there to vote. The president may refer to the treaties in his Cincinnati address and Mr. Knox is expected to go thoroughly into the subject of arbitration.

Indicted for Double Murder.

Anoka, Minn., Nov. 2.—James Dygart, charged with the murder of Mrs. Walter Bolton and her cousin, Frank E. Rhodes, on the Bolton farm in this county, was indicted by the grand jury on two counts, charging murder in the first degree. When arraigned before Judge Gibbins the farmhand, who is said to have confessed to the double crime, entered a plea of not guilty.

AFT RILED AT ALLEGED TRAP

eves He Was "Baited" at Pittsburg Dinner.

LITTLETON MAKES DENIAL

Yorker Maintains He Gave Present Copy of His Address in Advance and That Taft Therefore Knew What Was Coming—Chief Executive Had Only Nineteen Minutes Left Before Train Time in Which to Reply.

Pittsburg, Nov. 2.—President Taft is angry. He believes he was "baited" to make Pittsburg a holiday and to make it.

That Representative Martin W. Littleton maliciously and intentionally "baited" him at the chamber of commerce banquet, by the unexpected argument of the Sherman anti-trust law, is specific charge.

The story is that the president was met early in the evening that a had been laid to give him a very pleasant evening at the banquet.
That he had been told
Mr. Littleton's speech would contain a savage attack on the attitude of the president and other members of administration.

The story runs that the president refused for a time to attend banquet and that several Pittsburgers had to give him assurance that had received false information as that would take place at the big dinner at Memorial hall. It was not these guarantees were received, said, that the president consented to the banquet.

Becomes Angry in Public.

Executive displeasure was vented by a wire from Morgantown, W. Va., he went from here, in which it tated the president in the first in his career "got mad" in public. The manner in which the speech-ing was switched was not to Mr.
Littleton's liking and the report from Morgantown contains a rap for the chamber of commerce responsible for it, as as for Mr. Littleton.

There is an excerpt from the Morgantown message:
Before an audience that included hundreds of Pittsburg millionaires and past 150 minor officials of the steel subsidaries the president was ed to sit while he heard Representative Martin W. Littleton (Democrat) ounce the Sherman anti-trust law demand its repeal. The Pittsburg cheered Littleton to the echo as fiddled the statute, declaring that as incapable of enforcement.

It had been a long evening of tireless speech up to that time and when Littleton concluded with a burst of ory amid a storm of cheers the ident hand but nineteen minutes to time his train was scheduled to leave Pittsburg and, for the first time he became president, Taft "got right out in public.

Puts Vigor Into His Reply.

Realizing that he was being baited to make a Pittsburg holiday he right after Littleton's argument. reely a sound of applause greeted as he arose, Pittsburg businessmen feeling convinced that he had silenced. But with more vigor he had ever put into public utterance the president defended the laws his face suffused and his huge y swinging from side to side he ng his fists at the Pittsburgers and them they must obey the law."

his fact was communicated to representative Littleton at his room he Hotel Schenley. Also that the ement had been made that Littleton had taken an unfair advantage of Taft, because the latter only had teen minutes in which to make train and so could not frame what believed to be the reply that the oc-on demanded.

Why, the whole thing is foolish," wered Littleton with a rising in-
on. "I had not such in mind. If thing of that sort was done it was my fault. I had been shifted back forth on the program until I did know where I stood. But I made complaint. It was up to me and I w it.

The president's excited. I don't why he should take upon himself defense of the Sherman anti-trust law. He's not responsible. I'd have have the job of explaining its shortcomings for the past twenty-one years.
Mr. Taft knew what I was going say, or at least he should have, because I gave him a copy of my speech in the afternoon and he had enty time to read it, if he wanted it. In fact, I understand he did read so the charge that he was taken wares won't stand."

Polo Player Killed.

Santa Barbara, Cal., Nov. 2.—John Santa, a polo player of wide promince, fell with his pony in a game received injuries that resulted in death.

GIRLS TRAPPED
IN POWDER MILL

Seven Perish in Factory Fire at Chehalis, Wash.

Only Two Girls Escape From Burning Building, Although a Dozen Men Were Unhurt—Owing to the Rapid Spread of the Flame Victims Could Not Get From Behind Counter at Which They Were Working.

Chehalis, Wash., Nov. 2.—Fire which destroyed the powder factory of the Imperial Powder company here caused seven young women employed in the factory to lose their lives and an eighth probably will die. Only two girls escaped, although a dozen men were unhurt.

The dead are Vera Mulford, Tillie Raschback, Sadie Westfall, Eva Gilmore, Bertha Bagle, Ethel Tharp and Mrs. Ethel Henry.

Bertha Crown was so severely burned that she may die.
The cause of the fire is a mystery.
One report is that a pot of paraffin in the mixing room was allowed to burn over by a careless workman and that part of it ran into some powder. A flash followed and soon the whole structure was burning.

The girls were hurled down together and owing to the rapid spread of the flames could not escape from behind the counter at which they were working.

Four of the company's buildings were destroyed, together with the equipment and many tons of manufactured powder, entailing a financial loss of $20,000 or more.

POLICEMAN ENDS HIS LIFE

Billings, Mont., Officer Commits Suicide as He Quits Force.

Billings, Mont., Nov. 2.—Standing before his locker in the balcony of the council chamber of the city hall, preparatory to taking off for the last time his uniform and donning the clothing of a private citizen, Policeman John L. Dooley sent a bullet from his revolver through his brain. Officers who heard the report hurried up stairs and found Dooley lying face downward. Death had been instan-taneous. The officer had given no information that he contemplated taking his own life and when he walked into the station he greeted the other policemen pleasantly and said:

"Well, I guess I will go up and get into citizens' clothes as my resignation is now effective."

Snow Flurries and Cold Wave in Several States.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—A decided drop in the temperature, accompanied by more or less snow, ushered in real winter weather in many of the Northern and Lake states. Michigan, where a blizard swept over the Upper Peninsula and the western portion of the Lower, suffered the most. The farmers were hit the hardest and most of the trains were delayed.

From Minnesota, North Dakota, Illinois and Ohio points come reports of light snow flurries, with a low temperature and high winds following.
Calumet, Mich., had its first sleighing party of the year, while Lake Michigan steamers were held in their harbors by heavy seas.

Another Wounded When Man Fires at a Noise.

Mays Landing, N. J., Nov. 2.—Eager to have shot at a deer which he sus-posed was coming down an unused road in the early dawn Charles Norcross of Iona, N. J., fired into a party of four other hunters, killing two and seriously wounding a third.

The dead are: Conrad Steelman, twenty-eight years old, of Pleasantville, N. J., and John Yost, aged thirty-two, Pleasantville.

Norcross is in jail here awaiting the action of the coroner. He is almost prostrated.

Charge Nomination of Willett for Supreme Court Cost Money.

New York, Nov. 2.—An information charging criminal conspiracy against four persons—among them the Democratic leaders of the two Long Island boroughs of New York city and a Democratic candidate for the supreme court bench—was filed by Assistant District Attorney William A. De Ford of New York county.

The conspiracy is charged in connection with the nomination of William Willett as a Democratic candidate for supreme court justice. According to the information the charge is that of promoting or procuring the nomination of Willett, "upon the payment of a sum of money" by the candidate.

PRESIDENT'S SON WINS PRIZE

Gets Award as One of Four Brightest Men in Harvard Law School.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 2.—The four brightest men in Harvard law school, as determined by the annual award of the Sears prizes, announcement of which was made, are Robert A. Taft, son of the president; Charles E.
Hughes, Jr., son of Justice Hughes of the United States supreme court; J.
C. Buchanan of Pittsburg and F. S.
Wyner of Boston. The prizes are $375 each.

Senate Committee Ends Hearings in Wisconsin City.

Milwaukee, Nov. 2.—The United States senate committee, which for a month has been investigating charges of bribery in the election of Senator Isaac Stephenson, adjourned its hearing in Milwaukee to meet later in Washington.

Senator W. B. Heyburn, Republican, of Idaho and Senator Atlee Pomerene, Democrat, of Ohio, who have constituted a subcommittee of the senate committee on privileges and elections, announced that 124 witnesses had been examined, thirty-two affidavits received, and 6,500 pages of testimony taken and that the inquiry so far as Milwaukee was concerned had been exhausted.

Senator Stephenson, the last witness, repeated his former testimony that, while he expended $107,793 in the primary campaign of 1908 for nomination, he had given little attention as to how the money was spent, but had left the details to others. The senator declared he never knew Robert J. Shields and, while he had done $100,000,000 of $12,000,000 worth of lumber business with Edward Hines in the last fifteen years, he never had any political dealings with him.

Particularly he denied he had been approached by Mr. Hines in Washington for money with which to purchase votes in the Wisconsin legislature or that he ever signed a check in blank and had given it to Shields. While some of the money was being spent in his behalf he was on a fishing trip, he said.

Secretary of the Navy's Opinion of Immense Fleet.

New York, Nov. 2.—"The fleet has demonstrated its preparedness for any emergency and has shown the effectiveness of the present organization."

George von L. Meyer, secretary of the navy, made this statement on board the president's yacht Mayflower, after having inspected ninety-nine fighting ships of the Atlantic fleet assembled in the Hudson river for the greatest mobilization in the history of the American navy.

Leaving the Mayflower in an admiral's launch, after having received on board Rear Admiral Osterhaus, the commander-in-chief, and the division commanders, the secretary paid visits to the flagships.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 2.—With thirteen months to a day elapsed since twenty-one persons lost their lives in an explosion and fire which wrecked the Los Angeles Times hardly the beginning of a jury had been obtained in the trial of James B. McNamara, accused of having caused the death of Charles J. Hagerty, one of the victims.
Counsel for the state estimated that two months hence a jury may have been obtained.

MORE REFORM
IN HOUSE RULES

Senator Bailey Thinks There Is

OBJECTS TO GAG ON DEBATE.

The "Three Jims" to the Front in Indiana—Taft Winning Senators to Arbitration Treaties—Bryan's Unanswered Questions—What One Millionaire Gets Out of Life.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 2.—[Special.]— Senator Bailey, who served ten years in the house, does not think that any very great reform has been made in the house rules, although there has been a general impression that the Reed rules, which Cannon enforced to a degree of unpopularity, have been superseded by rules which give the members of the house absolute control.
"The first speech I made in the house," remarked the Texas senator, "was against the adoption of that portion of the old Reed rules which provided that the committee on rules could report a special order and gag the house. The only change which the present house has made in that rule is to have a larger committee on rules and the speaker no longer to dominate it. The power is there still, and when a strong man determines to exercise it he will do so, just as former chairmen of the rules committee have done. It is wrong in principle and contrary to the spirit of representative free government."

May Be Used This Winter.

It is rather expected that the famous Reed rule, which has been in force in every congress since Reed was first speaker, will have to be invoked during the coming session of congress, as it is not believed that the Democratic caucus will continue to be as harmonious and unanimous as it was during the special session. The Reed rule, the real gag, by which the committee on rules shuts off all debate, requires a majority of the house for its enforcement, but no committee has attempted to put such a rule through without being sure of its majority.

The Old Crowd in Indiana.

Republicans of Indiana are to be marched under the old banner. The "three Jims" are in the saddle. Jim Goodrich, Jim Hemenway and Jim Watson for many years successfully shaped the destinies of the Republican party in Indiana in days when it was in control. Then they were ousted, but the party is to be organized under the direction and control of Jim Hem-enway and will seek to regain control of the state. Meanwhile former Senator Beveridge has been abroad.

Taft's Senatorial Harvest.

It has been supposed that President Taft was more interested in smoothing down the rough places in his party with his trip through the west, but it appears that he has been gathering in a number of senators for the arbitration treaties pending in the senate.
Wherever possible he has secured promises of support for the treaties, which are second only to the Canadian reciprocity among his pet measures.

Versatile Elliott Woods.

There is no more versatile man about the national capital than Elliott Woods, the superintendent. He is an architect, an astronomer, skilled in telegraphy, wireless, X rays, photography and half a dozen other sciences and arts. He is a musician, can play the violin, piano, has written three operas and in fact is the most all-around man that I have ever known.
He is not a mere "jack of all trades," but he is skilled in the several branches named.

Remain Unanswered.

Mr. Bryan probably knows that President Taft will not tell him who made written and verbal recommendations for the appointment of Chief Justice White and Associate Justice Hughes. Mr. Bryan has been demanding in black letters that the president give him this information.

It reminds me that one of the great metropolitan dailies demanded of Chairman Cortelyou in 1904 in black type that seemed to roar how much each of a dozen specifically named trusts contributed to the Roosevelt campaign fund. Many times since the same demand has been made, but Mr.
Cortelyou does not seem to know it.
At least he has never told. It is scarcely probable that the president will pay any greater attention to Mr. Bryan's demands.

Board and Clothes.

One of the men who had made a fortune in steel was showing a million dollar residence he had built. He was asked what he intended to do with it.
"That's what's bothering me," he replied. "When I was a poor boy I never expected I would want very much money. When I had accumulated a million and saw other men with many millions I wanted to match them, so I went on and made more money. Now I have built this big house, but I don't know what I am going to do with it."

"What do you get out of life, anyway?" he was asked.
"Just board and clothes," he replied.
"Nothing more; just about what every other man gets."

Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 2.—George Warner was accidentally shot and instantly killed by John Hall while the two were hunting rabbits near this place.

BUFFALO BILL.

Retires From Public Life and Will Settle in West.

BUFFALO BILL'S FAREWELL

Circus Man and Indian Fighter Retires to the West.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 2.—Colonel William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) retired from public life. His show was packed off to winter quarters and his Indians will return to their tepees in what is left of the red man's land, while Buffalo Bill himself intends to spend his remaining years in the West.

His career, began as a pony express rider, led him through more Indian battles than any other living white man and included twenty-eight as a showman.

The sobriquet Buffalo Bill he earned in the early sixties when he contracted to furnish buffalo meat to the laborers on the building of the Kansas Pacific railroad. In less than eighteen months he killed 4,280 bison.

PROBING REBATES
TO STEEL COMBINE

Commerce Commission Quietly
Making Inquiry.

Washington, Nov. 2.—It transpired that the interstate commerce commission has quietly been conducting an extended investigation into discriminations and special privileges which are alleged to be made principally in favor of the United States Steel corporation and some of its subsidiaries by railroads which transport iron ore from ports on the Great Lakes. Officials of a dozen railroads came here for a conference with Commissioner Lane, who has been directing the inquiry.

James McCrea, president of the Pennsylvania; J. H. Reed, president of the Bessemer and Lake Erie; J. H.
Clarke, general counsel for the New York, Chicago and St. Louis (Nickel Plate), and Charles F. Daly, vice president of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, headed the delegation.

These roads are under indictment charged with violating the Elkins law, through discriminations in dock charges at Ashtabula and Conneaut, O., by which the government alleges more than $798,000 was rebated by the Bessemer to the Carnegie Steel company between January, 1908, and July, 1909, and by which the Pennsylvania also is alleged to have rebated $133, 000 to subsidiaries of the steel corporation.

CRAZED NEGRO SHOTS EIGHT

Three Policemen Fatally Wounded on Ferryboat.

New Orleans, Nov. 2.—An unidentified negro, crazed from drink, ran amuck on a ferryboat in the middle of the Mississippi at Algiers, near here, shot and fatally wounded three policemen who attempted to stop him and seriously injured five citizens.

The black then took refuge behind a huge pile of freight, but was shot to death by a fusillade from the revolvers of half a dozen men who were pursuing him.

Assembles Off Port of Los Angeles in Perfect Fighting Trim.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 2.—In perfect fighting trim the Pacific fleet off this port underwent the first naval review in Southern California waters to the satisfaction of Rear Admiral Chauncey Thomas and the pleasure of national lawmakers.

The vessels assumed the formation charted out for them—a solid rectangle with four columns and six rows, while the other two craft in the fleet served as reviewing ship and tender respectively.

Socialists Have Lead in Los Angeles Primary.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 2.—Complete official returns from the primary show the failure of the efforts of the Socialists to capture the mayoralty by a majority vote and thus obviate the necessity of going before the people again on Dec. 5 at the regular election. Mayor George Alexander, "good government" nominee, and Job Harriman, Socialist, will compete in a two-man contest for the office.

Impartial leaders say the question in the coming campaign that is agitating all factions is "What will the women do?" There are now approximately 26,000 women registered in Los Angeles and by Nov. 9, when registration closes for the fair sex, it is believed that 40,000 will register.

Seven Months' Strike in Western Canadian Coal Fields Ends.

Winnipeg, Nov. 2.—At a conference at Frank, Alta., between mine operators and mine workers in the coal strike district of Western Canada the United Mine Workers' union of America was recognized when the operators agreed to the check off system.
The parties are again in conference arranging the final details, according to O. A. Flummerfelt, president of the International Coal company. The seven-month strike cost the men and companies $10,000,000.

WOMEN HOOT MAYOR SEIDEL

Tells W. C. T. U. He Does Not Believe in Prohibition.

Milwaukee, Nov. 2.—Mayor Seidel, the city's Socialist executive, addressed the National W. C. T. U. convention and told it outspokenly that he did not believe in prohibition. His remarks were greeted with cries of "No." There were words of disapproval and he was all but hooted to silence. He said that there were things about the city which he could not approve of and that what he did not approve of might be favored by the prohibitionists. He declared he did not believe the saloon needed to be wiped out, but he said he agreed with the women as to the need for better conditions of children of the nation.

Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens of Portland, Me., was re-elected to the presidency.

She Was In a Hurry.

"Can you not wait on me immediately?" demanded the richly dressed lady.
"I'm in a great hurry."
"Yes; let me have your prescription," said the harassed druggist.

"I have no prescription. I want you to look up a number for me in the telephone book."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Duluth Conductor Held Up.

Duluth, Nov. 2.—H. W. Scott, conductor on a Woodland car, was held up and robbed of $37. The highwayman threw the trolley off the car near the "Y" at the east end. When the conductor came to adjust it he demanded his money at the point of a gun. Scott delivered promptly.

CASCARETS CURE A BILIOUS HEADACHE

Gently but Thoroughly Cleanse Your Liver, Stomach and Bowels and You Feel Great by Morning

You're bilious, you have a throbb-ing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with black rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that every disorder of the stomach, liver and intestines can be quickly cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from our druggist will keep you and the nirre family feeling good for months. children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

His Slang Won.
A ragged wayfarer accosted a well dressed pedestrian on Fifth avenue and said:

"It is up to you whether I flop."

"I construe this," said the well dressed one, "to be the usual request for money. There is a quarter. It is not alms. I will pay it to you for a definition of flop as you use the word."

"Flop," explained the ragged one, grinning, "means to sleep. I make a book they nick your wad for ten swell slugs every time you flop. Take it from me, kid, ten of those in our set is good for an even hundred nights."

"Here is $10, then," smiled the well dressed one. "Flop a hundred."—New

EX-NEWSBOY'S
MILLION GONE.

Bernard O'Neill Rose From Pen-niless Urchin to Fortune.

NOW HE IS PENNILESS AGAIN

Was Placed Under Arrest In Connection With the Failure of His Bank.
Once Candidate For Nomination For Governor of Washington.

Bernard F. O'Neill, who started life as a newsboy in New York and came to be a director of the Carnegie Trust company there, as well as president of the State Bank of Commerce at Walla-wa, Ida., with a fortune well beyond $1,000,000, has been arrested at Vancouver, B. C., charged with liability in the wreck of the Wallace bank. O'Neill was penniless when he was arrested and had gone to Vancouver to start life over again.

O'Neill is a hearty Irishman of fifty and a year ago was candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of Washington. He was defeated in the convention, but not until he had lost $900,000 in financing an afternoon paper in Spokane. The paper suspended publication a few months ago. In the meantime O'Neill's troubles were piling up at Walla.

Len, Too Much Money.
The bank where lent large sums of money to the Lane Lumber company It advanced such sums, indeed, that before the company even began the repayment of them the bank was compelled to suspend. In the crash O'Neill lost the rest of his fortune, and a few weeks ago he went to Vancouver
"looking for a job," as he told the officers who routed him from bed to put him under arrest.

Indictments were found against several other wealthy men of eastern Washington when action was taken against O'Neill in connection with the case of the Wallace bank failure.

Into a Bank at Nineteen.

Bernard O'Neill went west as a charge of the Children's Aid society when he was a lad, in knickerbockers selling papers along Park row, New York. He worked for a time for a farmer in Iowa, next moved on a ranch in Nebraska and at nineteen was working in a bank. Then he went to California and in 1901 went to Idaho with the foundation of his fortune already laid.

Just a year ago O'Neill went back to New York to attend a directors' meeting and spent a night at the Newsboys' Lodging House in Fourth street.
He made a speech to the boys in which he gave them a lot of homely advice on how to succeed in the world and made a generous gift to the funds of the home.

This, he said, was the table of precepts to which he owed success:

It doesn't make any difference whether a boy is a ragged newsboy or a high school graduate with money, he will succeed if he is honest and wants to.

There is nothing so scarce in the world as a boy of the right sort.

He must be right—truthful, honest, moral, progressive, thrifty and not afraid of hard work.

He has got to take hard blows in business life with a smile.

That spirit of taking a good hard drubbing now and then and not whining develops manhood.

The boy who can smile at hard luck is built of the material that succeeds.

More rich men are holding out their hands in the darkness to give a fellow a lift than ever before.

The need of hustling boys with willing hands and hearts is very great. If they have the pepper and ginger in their blood they (the captains of industry) want them.

Stops Falling Hair and Destroys Dandruff

Makes the Hair Grow Long, Heavy and Luxuriant and We Can Quickly Prove It

If You Wish to Double the Beauty of Your Hair at Once, Just Get a 25 Cent Bottle and Try This

Surely try a Danderine Hair Cleanse if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair with little trouble and at a cost not worth mentioning—just moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. It's exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

COMMUNICATION

The Dispatch Has Received the Following From Mr. Ryan for Publication

Brainerd, Minn., Nov. 1st, 1911.

Editor Dispatch:

A communication in Monday night's Dispatch from the law firm of Russell & Barron seems to be directed to my conduct as a city official than to the members of the water and light board, and I believe when they asperse my integrity as a lawyer and character as a citizen, it should be replied to, although fully aware that in so doing, I am catering to their desire to stand in the lime light of publicity.

They charge me with being attorney for the Toltz Engineering Company. If their charges against the water and light board are as sound as this, then indeed, they should be employed to investigate. Permit me to challenge them to show the public when or where I ever received one penny as retainer or fee for work done for Toltz or in any manner ever gave a moment of my time for pay or without it for that concern. They tell the public what most of it already knows; I am attorney for the railway companies, Citizens State bank, etc. I am, and I am proud of it, and when Russell & Barron surround themselves with such a class of clients, they will no longer have to send out appeals to the public for employment.

In standing in the position of attorney for the railway companies and the city, I am following in the footsteps of such sound lawyers and respected citizens as Judge McClenahan and Messrs. Alderman, Mantor & Ebner, who for years did the same.
Four members of the present city council are in the employ of the Northern Pacific railway company and who will say that they must sacrifice the city's interest because of it?

These two conservators of the public welfare, have given the public the names of some of my clients. Will they give the public the names of their clients at whose request their letter was sent out?

The charter defines the city attorney's duties and among other things requires him to institute, prosecute and defend actions brought by or against the city or any board thereof, and will these men show one instance wherein I have been remiss in my duty in that respect. And yet they attempt to create the idea that the city attorney must decide when legal proceedings must be commenced when the merest novice knows he has only to look after the legal work after matters are authorized by the proper department.

They attempt to create the impression that a city attorney on a salary of $65.00 should have no one for a client whose interests may at some time be opposed to those of the city.
Such a condition frequently confronts the practicing lawyer, and if they know the elementaries of professional conduct they know that in such cases, the true lawyer steps aside, lets his client engage other counsel and thus settle the dispute.

A Chameleon's Tongue.

The tongue of the chameleon is wonderfully extensible and extensible. A naturalist says: "By the former word I mean the distance it can be thrown out of the mouth. By the latter word its own elongation is inferred, for I am sure there is not space sufficient in the lower part of the mouth to accommodate the eight inch tongue which can be thrown out unless it is greatly contracted again. We know that it lies "folded" in the mouth, but it folds into a very small space, and when I have held a chameleon's mouth wide open to try to get a sight of this remarkable member it lies so compactly in the loose lower lip that to see it is next to impossible."

THE CHEERFUL FACE.

Next to the sunlight of heaven is the cheerful face. Who has not felt its electrifying influence? One glance at this face lifts us out of the mists and shadows into the beautiful, bright and warm within. A host of evil passions may lurk around the door, but they never enter and abide there. The cheerful face will put them to shame and flight.

METHOD.

The method of getting through work is method. Order, it has been said, is God's first law. Let it be yours. Do not let your work accumulate upon your hands. It is not work that kills, but arrears of work. Work put off is work put on heavy interest. "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." It becomes intolerable if it be laid upon tomorrow.

Black Bucks of India.

The black buck of India is a very graceful animal, weighing between thirty and fifty pounds. The hide of the male when full grown is of inky blackness on the back, while the belly is as white as snow, the contrast being very striking. The horns are black and spiral in shape and in length average about eighteen inches, although they have been known to reach twenty-six inches. The animals are usually found in herds and are difficult to approach on foot, as the bucks toss their heads in the air from time to time in a very graceful manner, and some of them are almost sure to detect any attempt at stalking.

Looking Glasses.

The value of a looking glass is usually estimated by the thickness of the glass, because the thicker it is the stronger it must be; but, speaking scientifically, thick glasses are defective, because the outlines of the image reflected are less clearly defined. There are really three reflections and consequently three images in every glass mirror—one from the upper surface of the glass, the second from the lower surface and the third from the metallic layer at the back. An ideal mirror is one with a perfectly flat surface. But it is only possible to obtain this result in comparatively small glasses. The larger glasses do not reflect a true image, as they can't be made quite flat.

STRUGGLE.

Did you ever hear of a man who had striven all his life faithfully and singly toward an object and in no measure obtained it? If a man constantly aspires, is he not elevated? Did ever a man try heroism, magnanimity, truth, sincerity, and find that there was no advantage in them —that it was a vain endeavor?—
H. D. Thoreau.

THE BRIGHT SIDE.

If the present moment be hard, sad, painful, we have the opportunity not to complain. There will be some bright thing. Fasten on that; if none, then this—that it might be worse. If it seem the worst possible from the outside, there is still this reflection—that we may make it worse by our own way of taking it in the soul.—J.
Vila Blake.

Father Seemed Right.

The organist was not lacking in patriotism, yet he rebelled when requested to play "The Star Spangled Banner" at a wedding.

"It is not appropriate," he said.
"Ain't it?" said the bride's father "For this wedding it is the most appropriate thing you can play. Cut all the rest of the program if you like but stick to that. I had the hardest kind of a fight to keep Belle's mother from marrying her off to a foreigner between Belle and me we won out for an American, and if this isn't the time for the 'Star Spangled Banner' I'd like to know what is."—New York

EX-NEWSBOY'S MILLION GONE.

Bernard O'Neill Rose From Penniless Urchin to Fortune.

Was Placed Under Arrest In Connection With the Failure of His Bank. Once Candidate For Nomination For Governor of Washington.

Bernard F. O'Neill, who started life as a newsboy in New York and came to be a director of the Carnegie Trust company there, as well as president of the State Bank of Commerce at Wallace, Ida., with a fortune well beyond $1,000,000, has been arrested at Vancouver, B. C., charged with liability in the wreck of the Wallace bank. O'Neill was penniless when he was arrested and had gone to Vancouver to start life over again.

O'Neill is a hearty Irishman of fifty and a year ago was candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of Washington. He was defeated in the convention, but not until he had lost $100,000 in financing an afternoon paper in Spokane. The paper suspended publication a few months ago. Danderine

Stops Falling Hair and Destroys Dandruff

Makes the Hair Grow Long, Heavy and Luxuriant and We Can Quickly Prove It

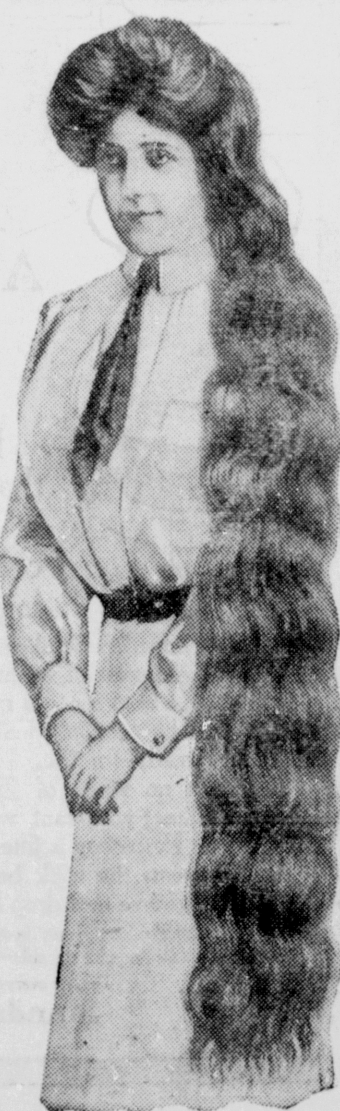

If You Wish to Double the Beauty of Your Hair at Once, Just Get a 25 Cent Bottle and Try This

Surely try a Danderine Hair Cleanse if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair with little trouble and at a cost not worth mentioning—just moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. It's exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

Black Bucks of India.

The black buck of India is a very graceful animal, weighing between thirty and fifty pounds. The hide of the male when full grown is of lanky blackness on the back, while the belly is as white as snow, the contrast being very striking. The horns are black and spiral in shape and in length average about eighteen inches, although they have been known to reach twenty-six inches. The animals are usually found in herds and are difficult to approach on foot, as the bucks toss their heads in the air from time to time in a very graceful manner, and some of them are almost sure to detect any attempt at stalking.

Looking Glasses.

The value of a looking glass is usually estimated by the thickness of the glass, because the thicker it is the stronger it must be; but, speaking scientifically, thick glasses are defective, because the outlines of the image reflected are less clearly defined. There are really three reflections and consequently three images in every glass mirror—one from the upper surface of the glass, the second from the lower surface and the third from the metallic layer at the back. An ideal mirror is one with a perfectly flat surface. But it is only possible to obtain this result in comparatively small glasses. The larger glasses do not reflect a true image, as they can't be made quite flat.

STRUGGLE.

Did you ever hear of a man who had striven all his life faithfully and singly toward an object and in no measure obtained it? If a man constantly aspires, is he not elevated? Did ever a man try heroism, magnanimity, truth, sincerity, and find that there was no advantage in them—that it was a vain endeavor?—H. D. Thoreau.

THE BRIGHT SIDE.

If the present moment be hard, sad, painful, we have the opportunity not to complain. There will be some bright thing. Fasten on that; if none, then this—that it might be worse. If it seem the worst possible from the outside, there is still this reflection—that we may make it worse by our own way of taking it in the soul.—J. Vila Blake.

Father Seemed Right.

The organist was not lacking in patriotism, yet he rebelled when requested to play "The Star Spangled Banner" at a wedding.

"It is not appropriate," he said. "Ain't it?" said the bride's father. "For this wedding it is the most appropriate thing you can play. Cut all the rest of the program if you like but stick to that. I had the hardest kind of a fight to keep Belle's mother from marrying her off to a foreigner. Between Belle and me we won out for an American, and if this isn't the time for the 'Star Spangled Banner' I'd like to know what is."—New York Sun.

"GRAND OLD MAN OF JUDICIARY."

Was Fond of Golf, Chewing Tobacco and Walking—Two of His Ambitions Unsatisfied—Sketch of His Useful Career in Highest Court.

The late John Marshall Harlan, associate justice of the United States supreme court, was the senior member in point of both age and service. He was in his seventy-ninth year, and for more than thirty-three years he had sat on the supreme bench.

His two famous dissenting opinions in the Standard Oil and the American Tobacco company cases brought him more strongly than ever into public notice. He severely attacked the majority opinion of the court in these two noted cases because that opinion, as he construed it, had written the words "unreasonable restraint" into the Sherman anti-trust law.

In Seventy-ninth Year.

John Marshall Harlan first saw the light on June 1, 1833, in Boyle county. His father was James Harlan, a prominent country lawyer, and his mother was Elizabeth Davenport. The youth was educated at Center college, Kentucky, and studied law at Transylvania university. He practiced law in Frankfort, Ky., and while settled there married Miss Malvina F. Shanklin of Evansville, Ind.

In 1858 young Harlan was made county judge, in 1859 he was the Whig candidate for congress in the Ashland district and in 1860 he was a presidential elector on the Bell and Everett ticket. At the outbreak of the civil war he led the Tenth Kentucky (Union) regiment into the fray and fought several years.

Colonel Harlan was attorney general of Kentucky from 1863 to 1867. In 1871 and again in 1875 he was the Republican nominee for governor. In 1872 he was mentioned in the Republican national convention as a candidate for the vice presidency. In 1877 he was put on the Louisiana commission.

Appointed by President Hayes. President Hayes in December of that year elevated Mr. Harlan to the United States supreme court as an associate justice.

In his thirty-three years on the supreme court bench Justice Harlan was known almost from the beginning of his service as a "dissenter" of sturdy independence of judgment.

He was in favor of an income tax, and he protested when his colleagues in 1895 declared the income tax law unconstitutional. In 1906 he and his wife celebrated their golden wedding. He recently asserted that religion has a stronger hold than ever on the United States and said no atheist would dare run for office. He was prominent for years in the councils of the Presbyterian church.

He favored a $500,000,000 navy, with ample warships on both oceans to cope with any other nation. There will be a "yellow peril" some day, he held. Justice Harlan passed away with two ambitions unsatisfied. The first was his desire to become chief justice of the United States. A second ambition ungratified was to serve long er than any other member of the supreme bench ever served. His record was only exceeded by John Marshall, for whom the dead jurist was named. The first chief justice served thirty-four years and seven months on the supreme bench.

With his approaching years and his almost unequal record for service on the supreme bench Justice Harlan came to be known as "the grand old man of the judiciary." He was of the old fashioned school of gentlemen, and hospitality always permeated his home here. He had a liking for golf, for chewing tobacco and for long walks.

Fish as Mirrors.
 A scientist says he always fancied little fish were protected against the mouths of the big fish chiefly by their markings looking like the stones and reeds in the water, but he now concludes that all shining silvery fish are mirrors, reflecting the dark bottom of the pond, and it is only when such fish come to the surface that the light shines on them, and they become visible to the big fish that prey on little fish. So long as the little silvery fish stay close to the bottom they look like mud and stones, only showing their shining silver when they come near the top and so are soon swallowed down.—Detroit Free Press.

HAVE GRADED TWO MILES OF ROAD

Cuyuna Northern Railway Contractors Making Good Progress Building Spur Line

TO THE SECTION 30 MINE

Deerwood Council Defines The Route of the Moorhead-Duluth Road Through Village Limits

Deerwood, Minn., November 1.—The Cuyuna Northern railway work is being carried on rapidly by the contractors and at the present time Guthrie & Co., have carried the grading work a distance of two miles from the starting point at Deerwood. The right of way is being rapidly cleared. Two dinky engines have been received and they are busily engaged in hauling out the strings of dump cars. The steam shovel is at work. Two car loads of horses and mules have been received, to assist in the work of clearing the right of way. The route of the road, it is believed, will follow a line through sections 16, 21, 20 and 30, township 46, range 28. The construction work has materially benefited Deerwood as many of the laborers are purchasing clothing, shoes and other supplies there.

At a meeting of the village council held on Monday evening the route of the Moorhead-Duluth road through the village limits was defined as running along Main streets, past the First National bank and the post-office, through the First addition and meeting the country road at Black lake crossing, continuing thence along the north side of the Northern Pacific railway track.

On Thursday evening, E. E. Lobeck, the temperance orator, spoke at the Scandinavian Lutheran church. John Oberg and Gust Almqvist are at Kimberly hunting for ducks.

William Guelker has returned from a business trip to Minneapolis.

Carl Carlson and Herman Peterson, while on a visit at the railway construction camp, took a ride on the dump cars. Sparks from the little dinky whirled through the air and landed in Peterson's pockets. When they alighted Peterson smelled something burning and on examination it was found his coat was ablaze and Carlson speedily put out the fire. Deerwood politics are commencing to sizzle, for the village election will be held this spring. Candidates for mayor are being considered, but it is too early to forecast who will make the race.

A. J. McLennan, the private secretary of George H. Crosby, of Duluth, was in Deerwood Saturday. J. F. Dykeman, of Brainerd, spent Sunday in Deerwood.

Mrs. Irma C. Hartley, county school superintendent of schools, was at Deerwood Wednesday, having visited the schools at Cuyuna and Deerwood. On Thursday she inspected the schools in districts No. 27, 46, 72 and 76 of which the first is situated west and the rest southeast of Deerwood.

Dr. Reider, formerly of Cloquet, has been appointed physician at the Cuyuna Mille Lacs Co. mine in section 3-46-29.

Marshal Lamey arrested two drunk and disorderly men during the week. One was fined by Judge Coffin and with the other, sentence was suspended on promise of good behavior.

John Helmer, of Duluth, has returned home after a four day's visit at Deerwood and its vicinity.

William Seaford, superintendent of the Helmer Exploration Co., while assisting E. A. Lamb to remove his office from the old location to the building across the street, Wednesday evening fell over the guy line wire attached to the post at the corner south of the postoffice. He severely strained his leg and back and could hardly walk.

Miss Olga Skau has returned from a visit with friends at Brainerd. F. L. Pitt has commenced the erection of a residence near his present home.

Cuyler Adams is reported to be running several drills in the vicinity of Fort Ripley.

Saved Many From Death

W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma, or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe its the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by all druggists. tts

would have fallen on any one who attacked the son of Peter Bondy, of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of Kidney trouble. "Doctors could not help him," he wrote, "so at last we gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. Its the best Kidney medicine I ever saw." Backache, Tired feeling, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, warn of Kidney trouble that may end in dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Beware. Take Electric Bitters and be safe. Every bottle guaranteed, 50c at all druggists. tts

Fully Qualified.

The story is told of a man who by some unaccountable blunder by the appointing authority was made judge of a minor court. He could neither read nor write, but that did not give him any uneasiness, although it aroused some fears in the breast of his wife.

"What are you going to do when there's any reading or writing comes into cases?" she timidly inquired.

"The folks that bring the readin' will read it, and the folks that want the writin' will write it," calmly replied his honor, "or if they can't I shall commit 'em. All I've got to attend to, Hitty, is the judgin', and I can do that as quick as anybody."

A Warm Bathroom
PERFECTION
 SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Every mother should be careful that the children take their baths in a warm room. The chill of a cold room is dangerous after coming out of the hot water.

A Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater brings bathroom or bedroom to just the degree of warmth you want in five or ten minutes. All you have to do is to touch a match.

The Perfection Heater burns nine hours on one filling and is always ready for use. You can move it anywhere it is needed. There is no waste of fuel and heat warming unoccupied rooms. Just the heat you want, when and where you want it.

Drums finished either in turquoise-blue enamel or plain steel; light and ornamental, yet strong and durable—suitable for any room in any house.

Saved Many From Death

W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma, or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe its the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by all druggists. tts

would have fallen on any one who attacked the son of Peter Bondy, of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of kidney trouble. "Doctors could not help him," he wrote, "so at last we gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. Its the best kidney medicine I ever saw." Backache, Tired feeling, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, warn of kidney trouble that may end in dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Beware. Take Electric Bitters and be safe. Every bottle guaranteed, 50c at all druggists. tts

Fully Qualified.

The story is told of a man who by some unaccountable blunder by the appointing authority was made judge of a minor court. He could neither read nor write, but that did not give him any uneasiness, although it aroused some fears in the breast of his wife.

"What are you going to do when there's any reading or writing comes into cases?" she timidly inquired.

"The folks that bring the reading" will read it, and the folks that want the writin' will write it," calmly replied his honor, "or if they can't I shall commit 'em. All I've got to attend to, Hittty, is the judgin', and I can do that as quick as anybody."

A Warm Bathroom

PERFECTION
SMOKLESS OIL HEATER

Every mother should be careful that the children take their baths in a warm room. The chill of a cold room is dangerous after coming out of the hot water.

A Perfection Smokless Oil Heater brings bathroom or bedroom to just the degree of warmth you want in five or ten minutes. All you have to do is to touch a match.

The Perfection Heater burns nine hours on one filling and is always ready for use. You can move it anywhere it is needed. There is no waste of fuel and heat warming unoccupied rooms. Just the heat you want, when and where you want it.

The Perfection is fitted with an automatic-locking flame spreader that prevents the wick being turned high enough to smoke and is easy to remove and drop back when cleaning.

Drums finished either in turquoise-blue enamel or plain steel; light and ornamental, yet strong and durable—suitable for any room in your house.

Primus D. Kreitter Leaves First National Bank of Duluth to go to Ironton

Ironton, Minn., Nov. 2.—Ironton is attracting most favorable notice at the present time and many are the inquiries about the town and its future prospects. The Armour No. 1 and No. 2 mines are expected to be on the shipping list next year and this will add a large population to the town. In addition work will probably be commenced on a mine on the Hill and Lamb properties, and one on the Mattson forty. Many Mesaba range and Duluth people, it is said, will erect residences in Ironton.

A steam laundry is soon to be started in Ironton.

John Helmer has assigned his lease in the southeast quarter of section 16, township 46, range 29 to the Cuyuna Duluth Iron Co. This is land which was originally leased from John A. Keyes. Drilling is to start immediately.

The Cuyuna-Mille Laes Iron Co. shaft in section 3-46-29 is being rapidly sunk under the direction of Capt. Lanyon. Fifteen men are at work here and a most comfortable camp has been erected. A little water has been struck in the shaft. Machinery is expected from Duluth and will soon be installed. Joe Raymond is the master mechanic.

Many stockholders of the Cuyuna-Mills Laes Mining Co. spent a few days hunting for duck near Mahanomen lake.

Ed. Syverson was at Crosby and Deerwood on business this week.

A company known as the Ironton Hardware Co., is erecting a building on Ironton avenue near Fourth street and expects to be open for business within two weeks. They will handle a complete line of stoves and furniture.

A bank is another improvement which Ironton will soon have.

Primus D. Kreitter, son of J. W. Kreitter, superintendent of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railroad, has left the services of the First National bank of Duluth, to take charge of the affairs of his father-in-law, John H. Hill, at Ironton. Mr. Hill owns some large proven ore bodies on the Cuyuna range and is one of the owners of Ironton, and his interests are becoming so large that he needs help in handling them. Mr. Kreitter entered the employ of the First National bank eleven years ago as a messenger and rose to the position of receiving teller. It will not be long until a bank is established at Ironton and he will be identified with it. He will take his family to Ironton, where he will build a home in the

Hood-Brady

The Methodist Episcopal parsonage was the scene of a pretty wedding at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when Miss Laura Brady, whose home is near Lake Edward, this county, and Joseph Hood, of Paynesville, Minn., were united in marriage.

A few of the friends of the contracting parties from the vicinity of Merrifield, witnessed the pleasing ceremony, and the young couple were assisted by Myrtle Bowman and Chas. Bowman, intimate friends of the young people.

The pretty ring service of the church was used, with the Rev. Charles Fox Davis reading the lines which made them twain.

Last evening a wedding table was prepared for them at one of the hotels in the city to which a few friends had been invited and which place a delightful time was spent.

The bride is one of the most popular young ladies of Merrifield, and Mr. Hood is a young business man of Paynesville, at which place they will make their future home.

A Musical Canary

A canary owned by a family in London demonstrates its fondness for musical instruments by flying on the keyboard of the piano every time the instrument is played, where it dodges the fingers of the performer. When the violin is being played, it perches and rides upon the bow. The love of music is not confined to birds, as people can testify who have listened to the gurgle from the bottle of golden grain belt beer, at the family table. Try it for an aid to digestion at meals, a cool tonic in hot weather. Order of Walter Bolton, Tel. 179J4, Brainerd, Minn.

TO BUILD ANOTHER LARGE MOTOR BOAT

Ingalls Motor Boat Co. Will Build "City of Deerwood." Sister to Launch "Twin City"

BUILDING DRY AT ARMOUR NO. 2

Dancing Club Formed at Crosby—First National Bank's Handsome New Quarters

Crosby, Minnesota, November 2. The Ingalls Motor Boat Co., ever ready to supply the wants of their patrons, will soon commence the construction of the "City of Deerwood", a sister launch of the "Twin City." Business has increased so heavily that the boat company is making preparations to take care of the additional business of next year. The launch is to be 40 feet in length with a nine foot beam and a six cylinder forty horse power gasoline engine will furnish the motive power. When she is placed in commission next year she will make opposite trips to the "Twin City." The boat company has also purchased lot 11 of block A from George H. Crosby as an addition to their boat property and will build thereon a residence and make other improvements, the lot acquired increasing their water frontage to 216 feet. When the lake freezes navigation will cease, but many residents of Deerwood, Crosby and Ironton wish that the company could keep a channel open and run all winter and may petition them to that effect. With a steel prow attached to a vessel and sufficient power back of it a channel might be kept free.

The Armour No. 2 mine has commenced the construction of a dry, 40 by 100 feet in size. This building is used by the miners while working in the mine and gives them the necessary shelter, lockers, and other conveniences when changing clothes. The building is to be of brick and five bricklayers will soon be at work.

Crosby has formed a dancing club and the first dance was given Wednesday evening. Prof. Clarence Boeve, as announced by the bills, played violin; Prof. Lovdahl, piano and Mr. Johnson, cornet. A large attendance was present and this first dance of the series was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

The First National bank will soon occupy its new quarters in its new brick building. Made of the finest quarter sawed oak, the fixtures compare favorably with those of any bank in Brainerd and the floor space equals that of any bank in the county seat. The directors room measures 24 by 39 feet, and near this is situated a coat room, lavatory and toilet, with stairs leading to the basement. The floor of the banking room is tiled. The marble wainscoting and the marble at the windows of the various officials of the bank is very attractive. The teller's cage is entirely enclosed and the doors are what is known as gravity doors. Plate glass tops are on the customer's desks. The room has a 14 foot ceiling, is well lighted with electricity and heated by hot water. On the windows are patent window shades, a great convenience. It is expected to open the new banking rooms on November 15. In the construction of the vault every safeguard has been employed to make it burglar proof and fire proof. Built of steel, cement and brick and equipped with all the latest safe doors, fire doors and a large safe within the vault, practically every precaution is taken to protect the interests of depositors.

P. G. Pastoret, of the Pastoret-Lawrence Co., of Duluth, is in the village this week personally superintending sewer operations. 125 men are at work and practically three-fourths of the work has been finished. The Spalding hotel was connected with the sewer this week. The Duluth company has done good work and the promptness with which they are fulfilling their contract is very pleasing to Crosby people.

Robert E. Lundbohm and Charles G. Osterlund, of Deerwood, were hunting ducks near Kimberly and were very successful.

Second street south is being graded.

W. S. Cochrane is enjoying a visit from his parents.

Of the girls Miss Mabel Lovdahl was the only one to capture an apple. I. E. Gaylord was not as successful and almost fell into the tub. J. Pierpont Cosgrove dived after and succeeding in grasping the most as they bobbed around in the tank.

Sidewalk work has been stopped on account of cold weather.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Crosby have returned to Duluth.

Attorney F. A. Lindbergh has removed his office from the corner of Main street and Cross avenue to a point farther west on Main street.

Attorney D. J. Severance, of Manakato, is expected to locate in Crosby on November 10.

Plumbing work has commenced on the Young building.

The council held a meeting on Tuesday evening. But very little business beyond allowing some bills was transacted.

The Swedish Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. Geleset and a fine luncheon was served by the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. LaBonte, Miss Mabel Lovdahl and Robert Gaylord took an automobile trip to the section 17 exploration work and to Cuyuna last Sunday.

Business men of Marble, Minn., are said to be negotiating to establish a new grocery store in Crosby.

Louis O. Berg, who has done much work drilling on the north and south ranges, is enjoying a short vacation and will go duck shooting this week.

Gust Swanson, who has had charge of the Gus Carlson Exploration Co. work on the north range, has gone to Aurora to visit his brother.

Capt. William Wearne, of Hibbing, was at Crosby this week.

Among the insurance men who were in attendance at the Brainerd meeting, Louis Law, Byron K. Cowles, W. M. Higley, D. E. Jones and A. R. Gress, of Minneapolis and D. D. Daly, of St. Paul, visited Crosby and the mines on Friday last.

The Ladies' Literary club meets with Mrs. M. F. Crosby and Tennyson and his poems will be the subjects discussed. The success and energy of the ladies in organizing this club speaks well for the town of Crosby.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Park Opera House

Manager Brown, of the Brainerd opera house, announces a three nights engagement of the famous musical organization, the German American Trio, known throughout the great Orpheum vaudeville circuit as the Milch Sisters, and Mr. Hugh Lutgens, an impersonator who captures every audience before which he appears. The first program will be given this evening and together with the showing of three moving picture films takes up two and a half hours, so that there will be only one performance, the curtain rising at 8:15 o'clock sharp. A specially excellent program, composed of eight musical, three impersonations and three moving picture numbers. The entire program is high class in every particular, but will be presented at popular prices.

At the Empress

One of the features of the Empress theatre is the Pathe film pictures portraying the interesting events of the week in the history of the world. It gives evidence of the movement among film manufacturers to provide educational matter which will be of actual benefit to the audiences attending moving picture shows, by showing scenes of real happenings.

At the Grand

"The Three Sisters of the West" will be shown at the Grand this evening and the films unfold the story of a great western drama which will prove of interest to all viewing it.

"Uncle Pete's Ruse" gives a picture of scenes and incidents of the civil war and shows in graphic manner how Capt. Warren was saved from death. "The Yarn of the Baby Shirt," a comedy, is full of laughs from start to finish. Two other entertaining numbers are "Delivery of Mail by Aeroplane" and the "Vaudeville Entertainers." Songs by Brown and Howard will form the balance of the program.

"The Three Twins"

The production of the "Three Twins" is a most notable one with its all star cast embracing Mr. George Ebner, late star of "The Time, The Place and The Girl;" Estelle Colbert for three years a famous "Yama, Yama" girl and Gertrude Hutcheson, late star of Henry W. Savage's "Merry Widow" Co. in which opera she played the title role.

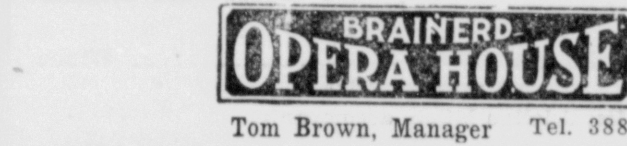

The chorus is said to number some of the most beautiful girls of any company and is considered the best singing chorus ever offered the public. "Three Twins" boats of also having the greatest musical director of musical comedy, Mr. Wm. C. Henderson, who has always been associated with grand opera companies. "Three Twins" will be seen here for the first time Monday evening, November 6, at the Park opera house.

WHAT NOT TO LOSE.

Don't lose courage; spirit brave Carry with you to the grave.
Don't lose time in vain distress;
Work, not worry, brings success.
Don't lose hope; who lets her straw Goes forlornly all the way.
Don't lose patience, come what will;
Patience oft times outruns skill.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

THERE are two kinds of college education—the kind dad pays for and the kind the hustling youth pays for himself.

The persons who think before they speak are noted for their taciturnity.

Why is it that one's rich relations seem so much more disagreeable than the poor sort?

There are men whose sole aim in life seems to be to get themselves reformed.

When we are not personally interested we can't help thinking that the fellow that gets it in the neck had it coming to him or he wouldn't have got it.

There are foolish persons who live poor that they may die rich.

A bluff is only good when the real thing isn't around.

Some men can easier make good than be good.

Some men have influence in their community simply because they never say anything.

Don't tell your friends their faults.
That's what they have their enemies for.

We may not be any too fond of our own society, but we do hate to see anybody reject it.

The Cheerful Habit.
It is easy to be cheerful if you try.
For the fount of mirth is running full supply.

So be happy as you journey on the way.
Though your good luck has departed,
Still you need not be downhearted.
If you learn to touch a button and be gay.

There's a lot in mental habit, you will find.
Joy or sorrow is so largely in the mind
By an effort you can chase your frown away.

Smooth the going that was lumpy
And be cheerful, little Willie.
If you learn to touch a button and be gay.

When you're feeling blue as china or the sky
And you feel like biting children on the sly,
With your brain all gnarled and twisted every way.

You can work up a reaction
And on joyful moods get action
If you learn to touch a button and be gay.

There is more than you imagine, I opine.
In this thing of being cheerful by design.
Having joy instead of sorrow as you may.
You can work it to a finish.
And your troubles will diminish
If you learn to touch a button and be gay.

The Reason.

"I am sleepy."
"Were you out last night?"
"No."
"Then why are you sleepy?"
"Johnnie called."

Some Traveler.
"You were raised in this town?"
"Yes."
"And have never been away?"
"Yes, once. When I was a boy I had to go outside the city limits after a stray cow."

Just So.
"He paid an exorbitant price for his machine."
"What is an exorbitant price anyway?"
"Anything you don't want to pay."

Some Raise.
"Don't you get tired living in the city?"
"I can't say that I do."
"But you don't raise anything."
"Only the rent."

Wanted Specifications.
"Darling, I would die for you."
"Would you really, Henry?"
"Indeed I would."
"Of what disease?"

He Hastened to Remark.
"Say, Judge?"
"Yes?"
"What is your private opinion?"
"I always charge $5 for it."

Kin to All.
"I wish I had a million dollars."
"I wish I had a rich uncle."
"The pawnbroker is just down the street."

Willing to Listen.
"Can you keep a secret?"
"No, better than you can. Go ahead."

On Good Behavior.
The courts will have to watch the score
And keep themselves untainted
In living up to, less or more.
The picture friends have painted.

Afraid of Him.
"You never go to banquets with your husband?"
"No. I'm always afraid that they'll ask him to make a speech."
"And he can't make one?"
"That's it exactly. He can't. But if he were asked I just know he'd get up and try."—Detroit Free Press.

Truth is clothed in white, but a lie comes forth with all the colors of the rainbow.

How Gorillas Make Battle.
"The prevailing belief that gorillas use clubs when they attack each other or their enemies is an entirely erroneous one," writes a traveler. "They do nothing of the sort, and how such an impression ever came to exist or how old time African explorers ever came to formulate such a theory is beyond my comprehension. During a long sojourn in that country I had ample opportunities to learn the truth about them, and what I discovered there was subsequently confirmed during a protracted hunting trip in Borneo."

"The fact is that in fighting each other or in attacking or defending themselves from other enemies they depend entirely upon their teeth, which are abnormally strong and sharp and cut like a razor. They are clumsy on their feet, but the enormous strength of their powerful arms more than makes up for this deficiency. In fighting they almost invariably attack the faces or the limbs of their adversaries."

"In the case of human beings or members of the monkey tribe the gorilla's favorite point of attack is the hand and especially the finger."

Measuring Moonlight.

The full moon is said to give a great deal more than twice the light of the half moon. The ratio is approximately as nine to one. Taking advantage of the extreme sensitiveness to light of a selenium cell, experimenters have measured the amount of light coming from the moon at different phases.
With the result above mentioned. The reason for the remarkable difference shown is to be found in the varying angles of reflection presented by the roughened surface of our satellite to the sun. The moon is brighter between first quarter and full than between full and last quarter. The cause of this is evident in the more highly reflective character of that part of the moon that lies west of its meridian.

The Old and the New.

He was an old timer slowly adapting himself to modern customs and acquired wealth. He had progressed as far as the open back shirt and was proud of it. The coat front was yet to be attained.

"Just look at me," he said to some friends calling on him while he was dressing. "By heck! When I came to this town I hadn't a shirt to my back, and now—now I haven't a back to my shirt!"—Judge's Library.

Fixed Him.

Mrs. Cobb—Was the grocer's boy impudent to you again when you telephoned your order this morning?

Cook—Yes, Mrs. Cobb, he was that.
but I fixed him this time. I sez:
"Who the — do you think you're talkin' to? This is Mrs. Cobb."—Life.

Be Sure of Your Baking

When you put a baking into the oven, are you always sure it will come out right? Are you sure it will be light and fluffy and tastily baked—or will it be a flat, soggy failure?

The whole thing hinges on the baking powder you use. So what's the use of taking chances in baking, when with

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

you can always be sure that every baking will be successful? Failure simply means time lost, materials wasted and the whole baking to be done over —and yet you take that chance whenever you don't use Calumet. For Calumet alone is unfailing in good results—Calumet alone guarantees success.
Use Calumet and be sure.

Then you can bake with more certainty of good results. The baking will be more uniformly raised—lighter—tastier—more wholesome, because the materials in Calumet are so perfectly adapted to all baking requirements and then so carefully proportioned that failures are almost impossible.

Calumet shows a great saving in price over "trust" brands—and is much more economical in use than cheap, "big-can" brands.
